

ALICO REPORTS SECOND QUARTER EARNINGS

La Belle, FL., May 11, 2009 -- Alico, Inc. (NASDAQ: ALCO), a land management company, announced net income for the three months ended March 31, 2009 of $2.0 million or $0.28 per share, compared with net income of $1.5 million or $0.21 per share for the three months ended March 31, 2008. Net income for the six months ended March 31, 2009 was $1.9 million or $0.26 per share, compared with $3.8 million or $0.51 per share for the six months ended March 31, 2008. The Company received a vendor settlement of $7.0 million during the quarter ended March 31, 2009 which positively impacted net income.

Operating revenues were $33.3 million and $48.2 million during the three months ended March 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively and $53.6 million and $70.8 million for the six months ended March 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. Operations produced a gross loss of $1.8 million during the three months ended March 31, 2009, compared with a gross profit of $2.3 million during the three months ended March 31, 2008. For the six months ended March 31, 2009, operations produced a loss of $2.5 million compared with a profit from operations of $3.6 million during the six months ended March 31, 2008. The decreases in revenue and gross profits were primarily due to lower revenues and profits from agriculture operations, primarily resulting from lower citrus prices compared with the prior year.

Steven M. Smith, President and Principal Executive Officer, noted, "We are making positive strides in cost saving initiatives in all of our business operations. We are continuously analyzing our core businesses in an effort to improve margins and believe that we remain postured to capitalize on the real estate market as conditions improve and our strategic initiatives begin to take effect."
